11 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,) 10CR4246-JM
12 Plaintiff,) PROTECTIVE ORDER
13 v.)
14 BASAALY SAEED MOALIN, et al.,)
15 Defendant.)
16

17 Upon consideration of the Government's motion for a 18 protective order concerning the dissemination of certain 19 discovery materials, and good cause appearing therefore,

20 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED pursuant to Rule 16(d) of the 21 Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure that the government
22 shall segregate the discovery materials it produces to the 23 defendants and their counsel of record into two categories:
24 (1) general discovery materials, and (2) sensitive discovery
25 materials. The government shall clearly identify any 26 sensitive discovery material;

27 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that "sensitive discovery 28 materials"^{1/} shall not be further disseminated by the

^{1/} The category of sensitive discovery materials includes

1 defendants or their counsel to any individuals,
2 organizations or other entities, other than: (1) members of 3 the defense team (co-counsel, paralegals, investigators,
4 translators, litigation support personnel, the defendant,
5 and secretarial staff); and (2) experts or consultants
6 retained to assist in the preparation of the defense.
7 Notice of proposed dissemination to defense experts or 8 consultants shall be provided to the Court ex parte and 9 under seal and no dissemination to such experts or 10 consultants shall be made until approved by the Court. Each 11 of the individuals to whom disclosure is made pursuant to 12 the above provision shall be provided a copy of this 13 protective order and will be advised that he or she shall 14 not further disseminate the materials unless directed by 15 counsel. Counsel for defendants may not show any of such 16 sensitive discovery materials to witnesses or potential
17 witnesses unless the sensitive discovery materials consist 18 solely of that witness's statement(s) or recorded 19 conversations. A defendant may seek relief from these 20 provisions as to a particular item or items of discovery by 21 providing notice to the Court of intent to show particular 22 identified item(s) to a third party and the purpose for such 23 dissemination. The Notice shall be under seal. No
24 disclosure of the item(s) to the third parties shall be made

26 financial records and all declassified information or materials that 27 were a product of physical searches or electronic surveillance
28 authorized pursuant to the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act of 1978, 50 U.S.C. §§ 1801-1812, 1821-1829, (FISA) that are reviewed by or made available to the defendant or defense team in this case. Such declassified materials shall be collectively referred to as "FISA Information."

1 until the Court so permits. The Court, after notifying the 2 defense, may consult with the Government regarding any 3 dissemination requests pursuant to this paragraph;

4 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all declassified FISA
5 Information that is provided as part of the sensitive
6 discovery materials in this case is now and will forever
7 remain the property of the United States Government.
8 Defense counsel will return the FISA Information, and all 9 copies thereof, to the Government at the conclusion of the 10 case. Defense counsel in receipt of FISA Information may 11 only make copies of the FISA Information in accordance with 12 this order. Defense counsel will permanently inscribe on 13 any such copies - whether hard copies or electronic media
14 - the following notation: "U.S. Government Property; May Not 15 Be Used Without U.S. Government Permission.";

16 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all such sensitive discovery
17 materials are to be provided to the defense, and used by the 18 defense, solely for the purpose of allowing the defendant
19 to prepare his defense and that none of the sensitive
20 discovery materials produced by the government to the 21 defense shall be disseminated to the media;

22 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that none of the sensitive
23 discovery materials produced by the government to the 24 defense shall be disseminated to the media by the 25 government;

26 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that any papers to be served upon
27 the Court by either party which include sensitive discovery
28 materials or refer to the contents of sensitive discovery

1 materials or any papers filed in response thereto, shall 2 be filed under seal;

3 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that defense counsel shall store
4 all sensitive discovery materials, and any copies thereof,
5 in a secure place;

6 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that notwithstanding any other 7 provision of this or any other Protective Order that may be 8 entered by the Court, the disclosure or discovery of 9 materials that may be submitted to the Court in connection
10 with any FISA-related litigation shall be governed by the 11 FISA;

12 FINALLY, IT IS ORDERED that nothing in this Order shall 13 preclude the government or the defendants from seeking a 14 further protective order pursuant to Rule 16(d) as to 15 particular items of discovery material.
